Additional Information on your RRSP

1. The goal of your plan

This document provides a summary of the group retirement plan established by your plan sponsor. The objective is to provide you with the tools and services that will help you reach your retirement goals. Your contributions together with the investment earnings on those contributions will grow in a tax-sheltered environment. This should help you to accumulate more for your retirement.

2. How are your contributions made?

You can make contributions to your RRSP by payroll deduction, if permitted, or lump-sum deposits made by pre-authorized debit, through online banking or by cheques payable to Desjardins Financial Security Life Assurance Company.

When you make contributions by payroll deduction, you may qualify for an immediate tax reduction, instead of having to wait until you file your tax return.

3. How much can you contribute in a taxation year?

In a taxation year, you can contribute up to the lesser of:

- 18% of your previous year's earned income minus your Pension Adjustment, if applicable, or
- the maximum dollar amount for that year as prescribed in the Income Tax Act.

Your unused contribution room from the previous year can be carried over to the current year without affecting your maximum. The amount of your unused contributions is indicated on your Notice of Assessment that you receive after filing your annual tax return.

These contributions are deducted from your taxable income when you file your tax return. Refer to the Notice of Assessment or the Notice of Reassessment that the Canada Revenue Agency sends you each year to confirm your maximum deductible contribution.

RRSP contributions can be made during the calendar year or within 60 days of the end of the calendar year to be tax deductible for that year. Contributions made after year-end can also be applied to the year they are made.

4. Your investments, your way

If you need help understanding your investment choices or deciding what investments are right for you, please contact Desjardins. It's also to your advantage to consult a qualified investment advisor at some point.

You may change your investment instructions at any time. We recommend that you review your investments annually or when a major life event occurs, like the birth of a child or the purchase of a new house.

You can also transfer from one investment option to another one offered in this plan. Desjardins does not apply fees on transfers between funds. There may be a market value adjustment applied to guaranteed funds that are transferred or surrendered before maturity.

5. Your beneficiaries

You are responsible to designate beneficiaries for your RRSP. There are legal and fiscal advantages to designating beneficiaries.

If a beneficiary is not designated, your estate will receive the benefits payable.

6. Leave of absence

If you take a leave of absence, you need to check with your Employer to find out how that will affect the contributions to your plan.

7. What happens if your employment ends, you retire or pass away?

The chart below describes what options you will have for the savings you have accumulated:

Your options	When employment ends *	When you retire *	Upon your death
You may transfer your Plan to a registered pension plan, if permitted by the Plan.	✓
You may transfer your Plan to an individual RRSP with Desjardins or any other institution.	✓	✓	If your spouse is the designated beneficiary, your spouse can transfer the death benefit to his/her RRSP.
You can take your savings in cash, but be aware that you will have to pay taxes on that money. This only applies to non-locked in money.	✓	✓
Purchase an Annuity.		✓
Transfer your savings to a RRIF – Registered Retirement Income Fund.		✓
Transfer your savings to a LIF – Life Income Fund (Locked-in).		✓

Definitions and additional notes

Annuity

You may use your RRSP to purchase a retirement annuity. Annuity payments can start any time before the last day of the year you turn 71 or the age as permitted under applicable legislation. The amount of the annuity you receive will depend on your age, the accumulated value of the contributions, the annuity purchase rates that apply when you retire and the type of annuity you select.

RRIF – Registered Retirement Income Fund

You can convert your RRSP into a RRIF, which is an arrangement between an insurance company, a trust company or a bank and you. Each year, you'll have to withdraw a minimum amount. You can also choose to withdraw the total value of your RRIF at any time. Funds in a RRIF are sheltered, but amounts paid out of a RRIF are taxable upon receipt.

LIF – Life Income Fund (locked-in funds)

A LIF is considered a RRIF for the purpose of the Income Tax Act, so you will be required to withdraw a minimum amount equal to the minimum prescribed for the RRIF from your LIF each year. However, your annual withdrawal amount will be limited by the maximum withdrawal amount prescribed under the applicable pension legislation that regulates your LIF.

Age 71

The ultimate deadline when you must withdraw or convert your accumulated savings into income is December 31st of the year you turn 71 or as permitted under applicable legislation.

Locked-in contributions

Locked-in contributions and any investment earnings transferred from a registered pension plan cannot be paid in cash. They can only be transferred out according to the applicable legislation.

*Desjardins offers all the products you may need if you leave this RRSP. For more information about forms to complete, fees and any applicable restrictions, please call our Customer Contact Centre.

Other options may be applicable as per provincial legislation.

8. Can you assign benefits?

RRSP benefits cannot be assigned. This means you cannot transfer them to another person and your group retirement plan cannot be used as collateral for a loan.

9. Annuity guarantee

In accordance with the contract entered into with your Employer, Desjardins Financial Security Life Assurance Company guarantees you a minimum annual annuity based on the value of your investments.

10. Financial hardship

Depending on applicable legislation and subject to meeting certain criteria, it may be possible to withdraw part or all of your accumulated assets. Please contact our Customer Contact Center for more details. Please note that fees may apply.

11. Definition of a spouse

A spouse is a person to whom you are legally married.

12. Definition of a common-law partner

For tax purposes, a common-law partner is a person who is not your spouse, with whom you are living in a conjugal relationship and to whom at least one of the following situations applies:

- the relationship must have existed for at least 12 continuous months. In this definition, 12 continuous months includes any period you were separated for less than 90 days because of a breakdown in the relationship;
- the common-law partner could also be the parent of your child by birth or adoption or;
- the common-law partner has custody or control of your child up until the time the child turns 19; or to whom your child is fully dependent upon for support.

13. Breakdown of marriage or common-law partnership

In the event of a marriage or common-law breakdown, a calculation of benefits accumulated during the conjugal period may be provided upon request from our Customer Contact Center. Please note that fees may apply.

14. Assuris protection

Desjardins Financial Security Life Assurance Company is a member of Assuris. Assuris is a not for profit corporation, funded by the life insurance industry, that protects Canadian policyholders against loss of benefits due to the financial failure of a member company.

Details about the extent of Assuris' protection are available at www.assuris.ca or in their brochure, which can be obtained from your financial advisor, Desjardins or Assuris from info@assuris.ca or by calling 1-800-268-8099.

15. Additional information

This document is a summary description of your plan and its rules. If you require additional information on the plan details, you may contact the Desjardins Customer Contact Centre at 1-800-968-3587.

This document provides an overview of your Plan and does not create or grant any contractual rights. All rights and obligations for benefits provided by your Plan are governed by the official documents of the Plan.
